- More information about the divisional process is forthcoming. However, now is a good time to start thinking about your many accomplishments during this appraisal period, as well as goals for 2018-19.
- It is recommended that self-evaluations for non-represented staff be submitted by July 9, 2018, and represented staff by August 13, 2018, to allow enough time for the supervisor to complete the appraisal and have a meeting with employees.
- Performance appraisals for non-represented staff are due by July 27, 2018, and for represented staff by August 31, 2018.
